The petitioner / Accused, who apprehends arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 118(1), 109(1) and 351(3) of B.N.S. in connection with the case in Crime No.434 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 29.12.2024 at 8.10 p.m., due to previous enmity, the petitioner and other accused assaulted the defacto complainant with hands, abused her in filthy language, and intimidated her, causing her to sustain head injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person; that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and that co-accused was already released on anticipatory bail by this Court. He would further submit that even as per the prosecution, the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, on instructions submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case against the

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegation; that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner; that the victim was also discharged from the hospital; and that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Gummidipoondi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of
