ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by the Hon'ble Chief Justice)

Though the health condition of the party has not been explained, advocate appearing for petitioner states that he was unwell and hence could not concentrate on preparation of the appeal. Counsel requests that the short delay of 21 days be condoned.

2. Shri Srinivas, who accepts notice on behalf of respondents, says that if the delay is being condoned, then the rights and contentions of respondents be kept open.

3. Keeping open the rights and contentions of respondents, the meager delay of 21 days is condoned. The application stands disposed of.
