2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners borrowed two wheeler of the defacto complainant, failed to return and abandoned the two wheeler and there was a wordy quarrel and the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that this is the case of wordy altercation and that custodial interrogation is not required, since the injured was discharged from the hospital and hence prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, would submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioners, that there is dispute between the defacto complainant and the petitioners, who are friends and injured has been discharged from the hospital.

6. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

7. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, there is no previous case pending against the petitioners and since custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

8. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tiruvannamalai on condition that the petitioners shall each execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
