extent of 1.77 cents, Survey No.696/1 measuring an extent of 1.31 cents and Survey No.694/2 measuring an extent of 0.15 cents in all measuring about 5.27 cents from one Rajammal and Devayani through sale deed dated 11.12.1999. An application was submitted for conducting survey and to demarcate the boundaries of the petitioner's properties after paying necessary charges. Since the same was not considered, the present writ petition has been filed.

4. At the outset, it was submitted by learned Additional Government Pleader for respondents that they will consider the petitioner's application and measure the petitioner's land and survey the same within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, which was agreed to by the learned counsel for petitioner.

5. In view of the same, taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the limited relief sought for in this writ
