CRL O.P. No.3661 of 2025

The petitioners / Accused, who apprehend arrest in the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 303(2) and 326(a) of B.N.S. in connection with the case in Crime No.7 of 2025, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had illegally transported 2 units of river sand in a Tipper lorry bearing Registration No.TN16 E 3273.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case; that materials and the vehicle were seized; that they have not committed any offence; that they have no previous cases; and that the custodial interrogation is not required in this case and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), on instructions, would submit that the respondent police seized the river sand and the vehicle and fairly submitted that there is no previous case against the petitioners. He further prayed that Section 303(2), instead of Section 304(2), may be taken into account.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, there is no previous case pending against the petitioners, the sand and vehicle were seized by the respondent police and the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Villupuram on condition that the petitioners and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
