The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 85, 296B, 115(2) and 351(2) of BNS in Crime No.8 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The is that the petitioner along with his family members, harassed the defacto complainant, made demands for dowry, and issued threats which ultimately led to the filing of the complaint against the accused. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, the learned counsel prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police on instructions, opposes for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners and confirmed the above said facts.
