The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 4(1)(A) of The Tamil Nadu Prohibition (Amendment) Act in Crime No.526 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, based on a secret information, the respondent police went to the spot and found that the accused person/ A1 was in illegal possession of 633 liquor bottles for sales; that upon investigation, he confessed that the petitioner also involved in the aforesaid offence. Hence, this case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case based on the confession of the co-accused; that the petitioner had never committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution; that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail; and that the petitioner is ready to produce solvent sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and also undertake to appear and to co-operate for the investigation, and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and on instruction submitted that the petitioner has one previous case; that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail; and that the investigation is pending, hence opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, considering the nature of allegation against the petitioner, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail, the petitioner has been implicated only on the confession of the co-accused, the petitioner is on bail in the other case and since, custodial interrogation is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail
