2. The case of the prosecution is that the victim girl was in relationship with the petitioner and both got married, the victim girl gave birth to a child and later the accused abandoned the girl. While so, the victim girl developed relationship with accused No.2 and he had promised that he would take care of the victim girl, her child and under the pretext of marrying her, the accused No.2 had engaged her in penetrative assault as a result of which she delivered a baby. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is in custody from 30 of 2024. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Principal Special Courts for Exclusive Trial of cases under POCSO Act, Coimbatore and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police, for 30 days at 10.30 a.m., and thereafter, as and when required;
