2.It is the case of the prosecution that the petitioner along with the other accused were found to be in illegal possession of 1.300 of ganja. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit admittedly no recovery was made from the petitioner and that the petitioner sought to be implicated only based on the confession of co-accused and that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required. Hence, he prays for the grant of bail.

4.Per contra, learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reiterated the case of the prosecution and submitted that there are five previous cases pending against the petitioner and the contraband has been seized.

5.Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the nature of allegations, period of incarceration and the fact that no recovery was made from the petitioner and the petitioner sought to be implicated only based on confession of co-accused and that the contraband seized is intermediate quantity and that the petitioner is in bail in all other previous cases and since further custody of the petitioner is not required for the purposes of interrogation, this Court this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the X Metropolitan Magistrate Court, Egmore, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police, everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
