The grievance of the petitioner is that the petitioner's application for renewal of passport is not being considered. Upon receipt of an adverse police report that the First Information report is pending in Crime No.383/2024 on the file of the second respondent, the passport is not being renewed.

2. By the judgment of this Court in Arumugam v. the Regional Passport Officer [W.A.(MD).No.301/2018] and also the directions issued by the Government of India in this regard, the mere pendency of the First Information Report cannot be considered as a pendency of a criminal within a meaning of the Passport Act and as such, the petitioner's application deserves to be considered.

3. In view thereof, this writ petition is allowed on the following terms.

(i) The first respondent is directed to process the petitioner's application for renewal of passport, vide application No.TR2076995178124 and renew the passport, de hors the pendency of the aforesaid first information report.

(ii) The above exercise shall be carried on within a period of 12 weeks
