2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and committed robbery of Home Theatre, Drilling Machine and Steel Box. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the stolen property has been recovered and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5.Considering the nature of the allegation; the fact that the stolen property has been recovered, the fact that the petitioner has no bad antecedents, and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
