2. The case of the prosecution is that on 12.02.2025, when the respondent police were in a routine check up near Chettipalayam to Pothanur Road, they found the petitioner along with another accused were found in illegal possession of 4 units of Gravel sand in a Lorry without permission of the Government and valid bill.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that petitioner is innocent; that co-accused were already arrested and released on bail and since the contraband has been seized, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, submitted that the petitioner, has two other previous cases of similar nature, however, he is on bail in those cases.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, without prejudice to his defense and contention, is ready and willing to deposit an amount of Rs.5,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government or any other organization. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

7. On considering the voluntary submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five thousand only) as non refundable deposit to "District Legal Services Authority, Coimbatore", without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court. Merely because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

8. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the co-accused was already arrested and released on bail, the petitioner is on bail in all other previous cases, contraband was seized and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

9. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition
