2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner/A3 is the relative of the defacto complainant; that A1 and A2 are the brother-in-law and mother-in-law of the defacto complainant respectively; that the defacto complainant had questioned them with regard to certain issues, as a result of which, the petitioner and others attacked the defacto complainant with wooden logs and hands.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent; that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the injured was discharged from the hospital; and that in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital; and that there is a counter case registered against the defacto complainant in Cr. No.150 of 2025.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, there is a counter case against the defacto complainant and since the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned XV Metropolitan Magistrate, George Town, Chennai on condition that the petitioners shall each execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned
