The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 133 of BNS (Sections 294(b), 323 and 355 of IPC) R/w Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.08 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that, on account prior enmity between the petitioner and the defacto complainant regarding a civil dispute, the petitioner came to the defacto complainant's house, abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and her mother-in-law using bricks and stones. Hence, this case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the petitioner had never committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution; and that the petitioner is ready to produce solvent sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and also undertake to appear and to co-operate for the investigation, and prayed for

Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and on instruction submitted that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are neighbors; that there is a civil dispute between them; that the petitioner has no previous cases; that the injured was discharged from the hospital; and that the investigation is pending, hence opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, considering the nature of allegation against the petitioner, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, the petitioner has no previous cases and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of
