4(2)(c) and 5(1)(d) of Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 in connection with the case in Crime No.111 of 2025, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant went to Nanjappa Nagar, Singanallur, Coimbatore, as invited by A2 and saw several girls who were gesturing inappropriately and were trying to seduce the complainant; and hence, the defacto complainant lodged the instant complaint. It is the further case of the prosecution that the petitioner was the person responsible for the immoral trafficking.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent; that the allegations against the petitioner are false; that co-accused was arrested and released on bail; that based on the confession of the co-accused, this petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case; and that in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the victim girls were secured, the co-accused were arrested and released on bail and based on the confession of the co-accused, this petitioner is sought to be implicated in this case.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the victims girls were secured, co-accused was arrested and released on bail, the petitioner is sought to be implicated, based on the confession of the co-accused and since the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned
