of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

CRL OP NO.5639 of 2025

2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of prior enmity, the petitioner along with the other accused threatened the defacto complainant, abused and assaulted him.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that injured has been discharged from the hospital and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and also perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, the petitioner has no bad
