2.It is the case of the prosecution that the petitioner along with the other accused went to the defacto complainant's shop and had snacks; that they refused to pay money and when the defacto complainant demanded money, the accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with knife and caused injuries. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the allegations are false; that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is in custody from 06.02.2025 and hence further custody of the petitioner is not required and prayed for the grant of bail.

4.Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are two previous cases pending against the petitioner similar of nature and the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of allegations, period of incarceration, the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is on bail in all the cases and since further custody of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Neyveli, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent Police, everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
