2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had stolen two numbers of RRU (Radio Remote Unit) worth about Rs.2,00,000/- from Airtel Company.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that property has not been recovered; that the petitioners were involved in two other cases of a similar nature.

5. Considering the nature of allegations, the petitioners were involved in two other cases of a similar nature, the fact that the stolen articles are yet to be recovered, this Court is not inclined to grant
