2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused was found to make preparation to commit dacoity near Upperkuttai at Palaiyavandipalayam. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, he sought for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that there are three previous cases pending against him.

5. Considering the nature of allegation against the petitioner and the petitioner is on bail in other previous cases and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
