2. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

3. The petitioner is the wife, who is the respondent in HMOP.No.11 of 2025 before the Family Court, Tiruppur which proceeding has been filed by the respondent-husband. The petitioner states that she is unable to attend the hearings before the Family Court, Tiruppur especially in view of necessity to take care of her two (2) years old child and has come forward with the present transfer request.

4. The objection taken by the respondent-husband is that the petitioner's family is very influential and at the same time, the respondent-husband apprehends that there may be threats to his safety and life, if he attends the proceedings before the Family Court, Tiruvannamalai. It is seen that, admittedly, proceedings are pending for the domestic violence in the Courts of Tiruvannamalai. Therefore, there can be no impediment for the respondent to attend HMOP proceedings on the file of the Family Court, Tiruvannamalai.
