A perusal of the petition filed before this court revealed that the petitioner even without knowing the allegations made in several FIRs as mentioned in the petition and without adding the concerned police station as a party to this petition and without adding the complainants who filed complaint for registration of an FIR, filed this petition that too with the omnibus prayer.

3. In the prayer portion, the petitioner did not even mention what are the FIRs to be clubbed together and without mentioning from the file of which police station and without adding the complainants to the respective FIRs.
