instructions, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the petitioner has five previous cases, among which, one case is of similar nature for the possession of intermediate quantity and the remaining cases were registered for the offences under IPC; that the petitioner is on bail in all the other cases; that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail; and that contraband has been seized.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact that the contraband was seized and no recovery of contraband was made from this petitioner, he has been implicated based on the confession of the co-accused, the petitioner is on bail in all the other previous cases, co-accused were already granted bail and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.
