2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and committed theft of the property worth about Rs.1,10,000/-. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; and that in any case, further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner..

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the stolen property has been recovered and that the petitioner has previous cases and in those cases, petitioner is on bail.

5.Considering the nature of the allegation; the fact that the stolen property has been recovered, the fact that the petitioner is on bail in other cases and since, further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
