in order to survey the subject property. He had also paid the requisite fees.

3. When the Surveyor about to survey the subject property, the third respondent along with others had obstructed to survey the land.

4. In view of the above, if the Surveyor finds any hindrance or obstructions at the hands of the third respondent, the Surveyor can very well seek for police protection before the first respondent and on receipt of such request, the first respondent is directed to conduct enquiry and pass appropriate order to provide adequate police protection to the Surveyor while surveying the subject property.

5. With the above direction, this writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
