2. The case of the prosecution is that due to prior enmity, the petitioners assaulted and abused the de facto complainant in flithy language.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in this case; that there is a counter case and that the petitioners have no bad antecedents.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that there is a counter case and that petitioners have no bad antecedents.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) for the respondent and also perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, the
