The case of the petitioner is that the petitioner is a 88-year-old, who was induced by his own son and daughter to settle his properties in their names, with assurances that they would provide food, medical care, and welfare support. Trusting their promise, he executed a settlement deed on 29.04.2024 vide Doc. No. 814/2024. However, after obtaining the property, the beneficiaries failed to care for him.
