2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in possession of 30 bottles of Meclene Brandy.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the contraband was seized; that there is one previous case against the petitioner and he is on bail in that case.

5. Considering the nature of allegations, the contraband has been seized and the petitioner is on bail in the other case, and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
