2. The case of the prosecution is that the respondent, during a regular patrol, found a Country Made Gun (SBML) in the forest and on further enquiry it was revealed that it belongs to the petitioner.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Considering the nature of allegations, the petitioner has no bad antecedents, and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation and this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
