II, Egmore @ Allikulam, Chennai, thereby dismissing the petition filed for seeking to condone the delay of 251 days in re-presentation of the petitioner's complaint.

2. Heard, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and perused, all the materials placed before this Court.

3. On perusal of records, it is revealed that the petitioner is the complainant. He had lodged a complaint against the respondent for the offence punishable under Section 138 of NI Act. The complaint was returned for rectifying certain corrections. However, it was not re-presented in time. It is stated by the petitioner that when his counsel's office was shifted to some other place, the main bundle mingled with another bundle and therefore, his counsel was not able to trace the bundle to re-present the complaint within the time stipulated by the trial court.

4. Considering the above facts and circumstances, in order to give one more opportunity to the petitioner to put forth his case, this Court is inclined to set aside the impugned order. Accordingly, the impugned order passed in
