2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found to be in illegal possession of 200 grams of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the contraband has been seized and in any case, petitioner is in custody from 14.02.2025 and hence the petitioner may be released on bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the contraband seized from the petitioner is a small quantity; that petitioner has one similar previous case and in that case, petitioner is on bail.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering, the fact that contraband seized from the petitioner is not a commercial quantity and that the rigors of Section 37 of NDPS Act would not be applicable against the petitioner; the period of incarceration; the fact tht the
