2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused trespassed into the defacto complainant's shop, demanded money and under threat made him to transfer a sum of Rs.25,000/- to A1's Phonepe account; that the petitioner, who is the cousin of A2 also participated and threatened the defacto complainant

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail; and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that the petitioner has not been arrested so far, the co-accused were arrested and released on bail and also the fact that the petitioner has no bad antecedents, this Court is of the view that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, and hence, is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the XV Metropolitan Magistrate, George Town, Chennai, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
