2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of prior enmity, the petitioner along with the other accused attacked the defacto complainant and damaged his auto and abused him in filthy language.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false; that no injuries were sustained by the defacto complainant; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case; and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Considering the nature of allegations, the fact that no injuries were sustained by the defacto complainant, and since custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
