2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and robbed a sum of Rs.400/- from the defacto complainant with knife point. Thereafter, petitioner had attacked the defacto complainant and caused simple injury on the defacto complainant's face. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false and the petitioner is in custody from 28.02.2025; and that further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reiterated the prosecution case and also submitted that, though the injured has been discharged from the hospital, he has suffered injuries on the face.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering, nature of allegations against the petitioner; period of incarceration; and since further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
