2. The case of the prosecution is that, due to previous enmity, accused trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant; that A2 & A4 held the defacto complainant and petitioner/A1 & A3 attacked him with wooden log, as a result, the defacto complainant sustained grievous injuries. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the allegations are false and in any case, the petitioner is in custody from 21.01.2025 and since further custody is not required, the petitioner may be released on bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured victim has been discharged from the hospital; petitioner has previous cases and in those cases, petitioner is on bail.

5. Considering the nature of allegations against the petitioner; the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital; period of incarceration; the fact that the petitioner is on bail in other cases and since further custody is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
