3. When the matter came up for hearing, the learned Government

Advocate taking notice on behalf the respondents would submit that the possession was already taken yesterday and the premises have been locked and sealed.

4. In that view of the matter, let the revision petition filed by the petitioner in R.P. No. 371 of 2024 shall be decided as expeditiously as possible, as the petitioner is claiming ownership of the property. It is stated that the hearing is now posted to 21.04.2025. In view of the possession being taken, the petitioner shall appear before the first respondent on 24.03.2025 and the hearing shall be advanced to 24.03.2025. Thereafter, the hearing shall proceed as expeditiously as possible and the revision shall be disposed of in any event not later than eight weeks from 24.03.2025. Needless to mention that if the petitioner succeeds, the possession shall be handed over to the petitioner.

6. In view thereof, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.
