2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, without proper medical course, was running a clinic and examining patients through Zoho app.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent; that he has been falsely implicated in this case; and in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the premises of the petitioner was sealed and the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the petitioner's premises was sealed, the petitioner has no bad antecedents, this Court is of the view that custodial interrogation is not required. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
