2. The challenge in this Writ Petition is to the order passed by the respondent dated 11.03.2022 and to quash the same and consequently, to direct the respondent to revoke the cancellation of the GST registration of the petitioner's Firm.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that due to introduction of GST Act, many issues had cropped up on the rate of tax, procedures in payment of taxes and filing of returns, and that there were confusion, hence, the petitioner could not concentrate and fully understand the subject due to his ill-health and could not pay the taxes and due to this confusion, the returns were not filed, under these circumstances, the GST Registration of the petitioner was cancelled by the respondent vide the impugned order dated 11.03.2022. However, the learned counsel submits that the petitioner is willing to file his GST returns and pay the entire tax liabilities along with applicable interest and penalty, if any, hence, prays this

Court to revoke the order passed by the respondent for cancellation of GST

Registration of the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (T) for the respondent while confirming that the GST registration of the petitioner has been cancelled by the respondent vide impugned order dated 11.03.2022, fairly submits that since the petitioner has come forward to pay the entire tax liabilities, the prayer sought for by the petitioner may be considered.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (T) for the respondent and also perused the materials available on record.

6. In this case, the GST registration of the petitioner was cancelled by the respondent vide the impugned order dated 11.03.2022. According to the petitioner, subsequent to the introduction of GST Act, many issues had cropped up on the rate of tax, procedures in payment of taxes and filing of returns, and hence, the petitioner could not concentrate and fully understand the subject and added to that his ill-health condition was also not good at that point of time, hence, the returns were not filed, under these circumstances, the GST Registration of the petitioner was cancelled by the respondent vide the impugned order dated 11.03.2022. The reason provided for non-filing of returns, in the considered opinion of this Court, appears to be genuine.

6.1 In view of the above, this Court is inclined to revoke the impugned order passed by the respondent canceling the GST registration of the petitioner. The cancellation of registration is hereby revoked, subject to the fulfillment of the following conditions:-
