2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused was found in illegal possession of 60 grams of Methamphetamine. Hence, this case.

3.Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the trial is yet to commence, since there is no Presiding Officer for NDPS cases; that continuous incarceration is against the fundamental right under Article 21 of the Constitution of India and hence, he may be released on bail.

4.Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, per contra, submitted that trial is posted for examination of the Inspector of Police, the trial would be concluded in the near future and submitted that the twin conditions under Section 37 of NDPS has not been satisfied by the petitioner and sought for dismissal.

5. Considering the aforesaid facts and the gravity of the offence, this Court is not inclined to entertain the bail petition at this stage. However, the petitioner cannot be incarcerated continuously for an indefinite period without conclusion of the trial, hence the learned Additional District Judge/Presiding Officer, Special Court for Essential Commodities Act Cases, Coimbatore District is directed to conclude the trial in C.C. No.96 of 2023 as expeditiously as possible. If the trial is not concluded within a period of four (4) months, the petitioner is at liberty to renew the above petition.

6. With the above observations, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
