2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner trespassed into the de facto complainant's house and assaulted him with stones and sticks.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent; he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the petitioner has no bad antecedents and in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital and that the petitioner has no bad antecedents.

5. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, the petitioner has no bad antecedents, and since, custodial interrogation is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
