ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 118(1) of BNS r/w Section 4 of TNPWH Act, in Crime No.910 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. It is the case of the prosecution is that, the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and her husband, and abused them in filthy language.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners had also lodged a complaint against the defacto complainant, and in order to counter that, the present complaint has been lodged by the defacto complainant; that the injured has been discharged from the hospital; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and confirms that, on the complaint given by the petitioners, a case has been registered and is being investigated as a case and counter by the respondent.

5. Considering that it is a case of case and counter; that the injured has been discharged from the hospital; and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the Metropolitan Magistrate-X, Egmore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall
