Government Advocate (Crl. Side)

ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of B.N.S, in Crime No.54 of 2025, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours; that on 21.02.2025 at 21.00 hours, the first petitioner, in an inebriated condition, abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and tried to attack him with wooden log and that the second accused also attacked him with suri knife, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained injury on his eye. Hence, this case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent; that they had not committed any offence; and that the petitioners are ready to produce solvent sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and also undertake to appear and to co-operate for the investigation, and prayed for anticipatory

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that the investigation is pending.

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, considering the nature of allegation against the petitioners, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact the injured has been discharged from the hospital, and since custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Vellore, Vellore District, on condition that each of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the
