2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the de facto complainant had a love affair; that when the de facto complainant, along with her friend, met the petitioner and asked him to delete the photographs that were taken by the de facto complainant and the petitioner, a wordy quarrel arose; and that the petitioner assaulted the de facto complainant with hands.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent; he has been falsely implicated in this case and in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the injured was treated as an out patient and that there are two previous cases against the petitioner.

5. Considering the nature of the allegations, that this is a case of love affair between the petitioner and the de facto complainant, the fact that the injured was treated as an out patient, the petitioner is on bail in other two previous cases, and since, custodial interrogation is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned IX Metropolitan Magistrate Court, Saidapet, Chennai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on proof of payment of deposits, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
