2. The case of the prosecution is that on account of previous enmity, the petitioner along with the other accused assaulted the de facto complainant.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the petitioner has no bad antecedents and prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, that there is a counter case and that the petitioner has previous cases.

5. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, the petitioner is on bail in the other previous cases, that the main accused was arrested and released on bail and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose
