the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2) of B.N.S. read with Section 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act in connection with the case in Crime No.82 of 2025, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the 2nd petitioner had illegally transported river sand in a lorry bearing Registration No.TN19 D 6720 and that the 1st petitioner is the owner of the said vehicle.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the allegations against the petitioners are false; that they have been falsely implicated in this case; that they have no bad antecedents and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), on instructions, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that contraband has been seized and confirmed that the petitioners have

5. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side, the fact that the contraband has seized, the petitioners have no bad antecedents and since, the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Chengalpattu on condition that the petitioners shall each execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

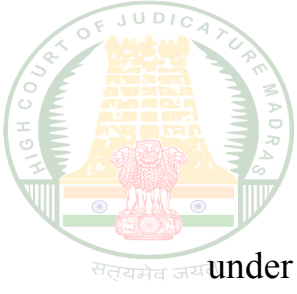

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered
