The petitioners / Accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 296(b), 115(2) and 351(3) of B.N.S. and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Women Harassment Act in connection with the case in Crime No.297 of 2025, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity with regard to some financial transactions, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant, assaulted and threatened the defacto complainant.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the allegations against the petitioners are false; that in fact, during the occurrence, the defacto complainant attacked the 2nd petitioner herein using fruit mixer jar, thereby, the latter sustained injuries; that a counter case against the defacto complainant and others is pending investigation in Cr. No.298 of 2025; and that in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the injured were discharged from the hospital; and that a complaint filed by the petitioners against the defacto complainant and others is pending investigation in Cr. No.298 of 2025.

5. Considering the nature of offences, the fact that the injured were discharged from the hospital, there is a case and counter case and since the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.4, Tiruppur on condition that the petitioners
