2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 1.200 kilograms of ganja. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case; that the contraband was seized and that the petitioner is in custody from 21.02.2025 and hence, he may be released on bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions submitted that the contraband has been seized from the petitioner and that the petitioner has 11 previous cases, out of which one case is similar in nature.

5. Considering the period of incarceration and the fact that the petitioner is on bail in all the previous cases and the contraband seized is an intermediate quantity and since further custody is not required for the purpose of interrogation, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
