2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner/accused had committed theft of a grill gate from the de facto complainant's house.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that the allegations are false; and that in any case, custodial interrogation is not required and sought for anticipatory bail for the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the property was recovered and that one previous case is pending against the petitioner and he is on bail in that case.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking note of the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the fact that the case registered in the year 2023, the property has been recovered from the accused, and since, custodial interrogation is not required for the purpose of
