2. The case of the prosecution is that due to the previous enmity, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted her and her family members using steel rod, caused injury and also threatened her of dire consequences.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that the allegations against the petitioners are false; that the injured was discharged from the hospital; and that in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required and hence prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital; and that

5. Considering the aforesaid facts, the nature of allegations against the petitioners, the injured has been discharged from the hospital, the co-accused was arrested and released on bail, and since the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required for the purpose of investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Harur, Dharmapuri on condition that the petitioners shall each execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or the Police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on
