2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with the others, assembled unlawfully and affixed posters containing derogatory remarks about the Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu in the TASMACH shop and raised slogans against the Chief Minister and thus committed the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent; that he undertook not to protest in such a manner; and in any case, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and sought anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case.

5. In view of the above said submissions, considering the nature of the allegations, the undertaking of the petitioner, this Court is of the view that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.
