2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the first respondent-Police and perused the materials available on record.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that there is no prima facie material available as against the petitioner. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he is no way connected with the alleged complaint. The de-facto complainant admitted the relationship with the petitioner. She herself admitted in the complaint that she has given up the relationship. Hence there is no necessity to conduct investigation. Therefore, the petitioner has filed this criminal original petition to quash the F.I.R in Crime No.54 of 2024, dated 14.02.2024.

Since the petitioner made a false promise to marry her, the de-facto complainant has given consent for the physical relationship. Thereafter, the petitioner cheated the de-facto complainant and married other woman. Hence, the complaint.
